

Hailing from Snowdonia North Wales UK, Daryl James fuses gritty ska/blues with raw acoustic roots, bringing to life his down to earth and soulful songs with truly innovative and enchanting musicianship.

With an earthy blend of pure acoustic and gritty overdriven guitars, he plays with innovative tunings, intricate finger-picking and body percussion, to all out driving blues/rock riffs and soaring solos.

Fresh from his international tour promoting his new album 'insofar', he guarantees a live show that will have your feet and jaw on the floor!